7-day Course in SPAIN

"Education System and Schools in Spain"

Málaga (Spain)

TARGET AUDIENCE - Who is this course for?

This course is designed for teachers, head teachers, principals and other school staff who would like to learn about the Spanish education system within the context of Spanish culture. Although the pedagogic encounters with schools are focused on Primary, Secondary and Vocational levels, other educational sectors may also benefit from the general approach of this course.

Language of communication: English

Please note that this course should be included as a 'training course' in your Erasmus+ project.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Our 7-Day Course is for those who want to learn about Spanish education and culture through a combination of pedagogic encounters with schools, seminars, field projects "Contexts4Content", and workshops.

English Matters will select educational institutions related to Primary, Secondary and Vocational school levels. Participants will learn about educational organisation and management of learning and will have the opportunity to share their experience and ideas with colleagues from a variety of schools around Europe. This will support a European Dimension in Education and everyone participating in this experience will receive maximum benefit from it.

The course offers several key activities:

1. Pedagogic encounters with schools to learn about educational organisation and management of learning.
2. Seminars and workshops to explore specific aspects of the education system and culture of Spain.
3. Professional and cultural discussion resulting in a concluding presentation of learning.
4. Field projects "Contexts4Content" to explore places of natural, historical, and cultural significance, as a basis for the development of teaching materials to assist their students in meeting their learning goals and be aware of the socio-cultural richness of Europe.

Objectives:

- Become familiar with relevant aspects of the Spanish education system.
- Learn about examples of teaching practices in schools in Spain.
- Participate in seminars and workshops related to educational and cultural aspects of Spanish society.
- Participate in field projects "Contexts4Content" to places of natural, historical, and cultural significance, to support the development of teaching resources.
- Promote a European Dimension in education among participants and schools.

This 7-Day Course in Spain will allow you to experience the authenticity of the country and its people from the very moment you step foot in the airport.

Allowing yourself to spend enriching days in full contact with Spanish society and culture and combining this with pedagogic encounters with schools, will bring you an in-depth understanding of the Spanish education system.

The way in which students are educated can be a window to a deeper vision of a society. This can also lead to reflection on why a society educates its people in a certain way and may encourage you to see your own education system from a refreshed perspective.

This combination of elements will help build a holistic vision of education and culture in Spain from several enriching perspectives.

A NOTE ON THE SPANISH EDUCATION SYSTEM

The elegance, passion and history present in the art, literature, architecture, and people of Spain filters through all levels of their culture, including the Spanish education system. Spain is always creating, adapting, and looking for inspiration to produce a deep curriculum balancing content, humanity, and variety. The OECD reports highlight the good atmosphere of cordiality in Spanish schools. Spanish students' sense of belonging is one of the highest among PISA-participating countries. The closeness and friendly relationship between teachers and students, and the commendable work of teachers are key to improving academic results. Vocational Training offers enormous quality with excellent plans increasingly oriented to the needs of the present and future labour market. Many Primary and Secondary schools accredit also quality bilingual teaching. Spain is also one of the preferred destinations for foreign students.

LOCATION OF THE COURSE: Málaga (SPAIN)

Málaga is the capital of the Costa del Sol with unique museums, charming pedestrian areas, a wonderful beach, and breathtaking views. The opening of the Picasso Museum in 2003 marked the beginning of Malaga´s cultural renaissance. With excellent transportation links, exceptional cuisine and a wealth of historical landmarks from Moorish and Roman eras to the present day, Málaga is a busy city with both locals and tourists alike all enjoying the charming Andalusian atmosphere.

Participants can tap into Málaga's rich cultural and historical heritage by exploring its rich tapestry of landmarks including the ancient Moorish fortress, the Alcazaba; the Gilbralfaro Castle, with its stunning views and surroundings; the Picasso Museum, among many other places of cultural significance.
